JOIN-THE-CHOIR NIGHT

Wednesday, September 17, 2025 at 7:00 p.m..

COME TRY OUT CHOIR FOR A NIGHT AT ST. ANTHONY CHURCH, NO COMMITMENT REQUIRED!

We would like to invite all persons wanting to praise God with their voice to join us. God has given each of us unique qualities in which to worship Him. If you enjoy music and would like to worship with your voice, please join us at practice on Wednesday evening. The more voices praising God through music the better, whether in the pew or in the choir.

DIOCESE OF FORT WAYNE-SOUTH BEND
SYNOD 2026
SPREADING THE FIRE OF GOD'S LOVE

Bishop Set to Open First Diocesan Synod in 100 Years

After spending consecutive Octobers in Rome serving as one of five delegates elected by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops at the Synod of Bishops on synodality, few people in the world know the ins and outs of the synodal process as well as Bishop Rhoades.

In the two sessions of the worldwide synod – in the fall of 2023 and again last year – Bishop Rhoades saw firsthand the depth, prayerfulness, and fruits of the conversations Pope Francis called for on the mission of the Church. Now, Bishop Rhoades is hoping to bring that sense of dialogue and mission to the Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend.

Bishop Rhoades is inviting all the faithful of the diocese to attend the celebration of vespers in South Bend at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday, September 14, at St. Matthew Cathedral, where he will officially open the diocese's first synod in 100 years, entitled "Synod 2026: Spreading the Fire of God's Love." For those who are unable to attend the announcement at St. Matthew, the evening prayer service will be livestreamed on the diocese's website at diocesefwsb.org/stream.

Bishop Rhoades stated: "It is important to keep in mind that synodality is not an end in itself; it is a means toward fulfilling the mission Jesus has entrusted to us. Our diocesan synod will be focused on mission. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we will reflect together on one central question: How is the Church in our diocese called to live the mission of Christ today and in the years to come? We will together seek to discern the Lord's will for our diocese as we move forward as a community of His disciples to spread the fire of His love. ... Our goal is to strengthen the vibrancy of the Church in our parishes, schools, and ministries so that each one becomes a mission-oriented community of faith, hope, and charity."

Bishop Rhoades will serve as president of the synod and will preside over all its proceedings. Stacey Noem, director of human and spiritual formation for lay students in the Master of Divinity program at the University of Notre Dame, will serve as the moderator of the synod. Please stay tuned for more information coming soon!

Prayer for Synod 2026

Blessed Trinity, source of our life and our unity, we ask for your presence with and within us as we undertake this synodal journey.

Create in us and all those responsible for preparing the synod a discerning spirit. Help us to deepen our relationship with you and with one another over the months and weeks ahead. Grow in us the fire of your love, that we may eagerly respond to your loving invitation to spread the joy of the Gospel, and to serve the poor, suffering, and vulnerable. Form us to be better disciples, creating vibrant, mission-oriented communities of faith, hope, and charity.

We ask this through the intercession of our diocesan patrons, Mary, the Immaculate Conception, and St. Matthew. Amen.
