A SPIRITUAL DROP FROM OUR PASTOR XXVIII SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are all painfully aware of the terrible wars ravaging various countries around the world, such as Gaza and Ukraine. Pope Francis repeatedly reminded us that we are in a "piecemeal" Third World War, while the Vatican Secretary of State recently stated that we are on the brink of a Third World War. Alongside these wars, we see that violence and religious persecution are growing at alarming rates in many countries. Tragically, this leaves our world more fragile and less safe. The very place that God created for us to live in peace has become marked by its opposite.

It is our duty as Christians not only to pray unceasingly for peace but also to live as peacemakers, striving to become men and women of peace. Yet we must remember that true peace begins at home. I am not talking about the house where we live, but the home of our hearts - there, in the depths of our being, we can create both good and evil, healing and harm.

Let us strive each day to be kind; may our gestures, our gaze, our voice, and our words not be weapons that hurt those around us. Do we truly believe that Jesus is pleased when we pray for peace in the world, but fail to be peacemakers in our own families, friendships, and communities? Let us then begin where peace truly starts: in our hearts. From there, God's grace can radiate outward to heal our homes, our communities, and, in time, our world.

Todos sabemos sobre las guerras terribles que azotan varios países del mundo como Gaza y Ucrania. El Papa Francisco dijo varias veces que estábamos en una Tercera Guerra mundial a pedazos, por su parte el secretario de Estado del Vaticano dijo recientemente que estamos a punto de una Tercera mundial. Por otro lado, vemos que la violencia y la persecución religiosa crece de una forma alarmante en muchos países. Lamentablemente, esto hace del mundo un lugar menos seguro. El lugar que Dios creó para nosotros para vivir en paz se ha convertido en todo lo contrario. Es nuestro deber orar incesantemente por la paz en el mundo, pero también es nuestro deber convertirnos en constructores de paz para ser hombres de paz. Sin embargo, debemos recordar que la paz se empieza a construir en casa, no hablo de la casa donde vivimos sino de la casa de nuestro corazón; ahí en lo más íntimo de nuestro ser podemos crear tantas cosas buenas y tantas cosas malas también. Luchemos todos los días por ser amables; que nuestros gestos, nuestra mirada, nuestra voz, nuestras palabras no sean rifles que lastimen a todos aquellos que pasan a nuestro alrededor. ¿De verdad creemos que Jesús está contento cuando oramos por la paz del mundo, pero no somos constructores de paz en nuestro mundo? Comencemos, pues, donde realmente comienza la paz: en nuestros corazones. Desde allí, la gracia de Dios puede irradiarse hacia afuera para sanar nuestros hogares, nuestras comunidades y, con el tiempo, nuestro mundo.

God loves you with great tenderness.
Happy Sunday!

SPECIAL COLLECTION OCTOBER 18 & 19

World Mission Sunday

Each year, on the second-to-last Sunday in October, Catholics around the globe celebrate World Mission Sunday, a time of prayer and giving to support the missionary work of the Church. On the weekend of October 18-19, every parish in every country in the world will take up a collection to fund the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, which supports 1,124 mission territories in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands and parts of Latin America and Europe. These are regions where the Church is still young, growing, and often facing poverty, conflict, or persecution.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

October 2025

The crosses in front of St. Anthony Church (13) & St. Paul Chapel (100) represents those babies lost to abortion in Steuben, Hillsdale, Branch, Williams Counties this past year.

Unfortunately, we will never be able to know the exact number of abortions due to the use of the chemical abortion pill, which the Indiana department of health does not report on. Please pray to end abortion with us each Sunday.
