SPIRITUAL DROP
ALL SAINTS DAY –NOVEMBER 1, 2026

Once again, we celebrate All Saints' Day, which reminds us that holiness is not a luxury reserved for a few, but a calling for everyone, as Saint Teresa of Calcutta used to say. This weekend, let us reflect on the gifts God has given each of us and discover in them our own path to holiness. That path does not consist in following our own expectations, but in responding to what God expects of us—something we can recognize precisely in the gifts we have received from Him. To be holy is to be happy, and to be happy is to give ourselves completely to the service of God and our brothers and sisters. There we find the meaning of life and the key to true happiness. Let us not be afraid to return to God everything He Himself has given us. God loves you with infinite tenderness. Happy Sunday!

Una vez más celebramos el Día de Todos los Santos, que nos recuerda que la santidad no es un lujo reservado para unos pocos, sino una vocación para todos, como decía santa Teresa de Calcuta. Este fin de semana, reflexionemos sobre los dones que Dios ha concedido a cada uno y descubramos en ellos nuestro propio camino de santidad. Ese camino no consiste en seguir nuestras expectativas, sino en responder a lo que Dios espera de nosotros, algo que podemos reconocer precisamente en los dones que hemos recibido de Él. Ser santo es ser feliz, y ser feliz es entregarse por entero al servicio de Dios y de nuestros hermanos. Allí encontramos el sentido de la vida y la clave de la verdadera felicidad. No tengamos miedo de devolverle a Dios todo lo que Él mismo nos ha dado. Dios te ama con ternura infinita. Feliz Domingo
