Bags of Loving Comfort (Food) Lenten Alms Giving

In February, St. Vincent de Paul will be collecting food for the blessing box using "Bags of Loving Comfort." YES, THIS IS SOMETHING NEW. Each bag will include a recipe or meal plan along with a shopping list, so that once the bag is filled with the items on that list it will provide a family with a complete set of shelf-stable items that can be prepared into a meal.

Are you willing to give this a try? If so, look for the specially designed plastic ziplock bags in the Gathering Space of church in early February. Choose the bag you are willing to fill and take it home. Then use the shopping list to fill the bag with the items needed to prepare a family meal. Place the recipe sheet or meal plan back in the bag, recipe side out. Return the filled bags to the specially marked bins/boxes in the connector between the church and parish offices no later than February 28th. They will then be placed in the Blessing Box by a Vincentian so that this food distribution will be spread out over the weeks ahead.

February is a month that celebrates love. Hopefully participating in this loving outreach will serve as a fulfilling way for you to express God's love. Families may find this to be a great way for their children to really visualize what it can look like to help your neighbor. THANK YOU!

PS: Please feel free to contact Annette with any ideas for future meal/recipe ideas. acalloway345@gmail.com
