A SPIRITUAL DROP FROM OUR PASTOR

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle A - Sunday, February 1st, 2026

Dear friends in Christ,

Recognizing our limitations can foster an awareness of ongoing needs, particularly the need of that powerful assistance that we know comes from God alone.

Consequently, embracing our smallness is foundational for cultivating a faithful and dedicated mission within our Christian life. Developing intimacy with the Lord through prayer does not ensure success in all we do but provides the grace necessary for perseverance and fidelity to our vocation and mission, despite personal shortcomings. It is important to keep in mind that our primary task is to maintain faithfulness to the Lord by nurturing our relationship with Him in a serene and unhurried silence. Let us not forget that He is the wine and we are his branches. We can only succeed in this only life we have by being united with him.

God loves you with infinite tenderness. Happy Sunday!

Queridos amigos en Cristo:

Reconocer nuestras limitaciones puede fomentar la conciencia de las necesidades continuas, en particular la necesidad de esa poderosa ayuda que sabemos que solo proviene de Dios. Por consiguiente, aceptar nuestra pequeñez es fundamental para cultivar una misión fiel y dedicada dentro de nuestra vida cristiana. Cultivar nuestra intimidad con el Señor a través de la oración no garantiza el éxito en todo lo que hagamos, pero nos proporciona la gracia necesaria para perseverar y ser fieles a nuestra vocación y misión, a pesar de nuestras deficiencias personales. Es importante tener presente que nuestra tarea principal es mantener la fidelidad al Señor cultivando nuestra relación con Él en el silencio sereno y sin prisas. No olvidemos que Él es la vid y nosotros sus sarmientos. Solo podemos tener éxito en esta única vida que tenemos si estamos unidos a Él.

Dios os ama con infinita ternura. ¡Feliz domingo!

Fr. Osman Ramos
Pastor
