Showing God's Love - One Gift at a Time

We invite you to share the spirit of giving this Christmas season by supporting families in need within our community. Simply take a tag from the Christmas Tree at St. Anthony Church or St. Paul Chapel, and return your gifts by December 14.

Together, we can make this season brighter for everyone.
(See page 5 for more information.)

A SPIRITUAL DROP FROM OUR PASTOR

XXXIII SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I'm often surprised when I hear so many Christians express surprise about the things happening in the world today. I know—I have to explain what I mean. Many Christians often say things like, "What terrible things are happening in the world," or "Why is there so much injustice against the Catholic Church?" Others worry, "How frightening—this must be the end of the world!" or ask, "Father, please explain why all these things are happening." Etc., etc., etc. And then I ask myself, in wonder: Have these people never read today's Gospel? Fear is one of the devil's most powerful weapons. He uses it to make us distrust God's providence and to sow anxiety within our hearts. Yet a faithful Catholic knows that pain and persecution are part of our earthly journey. None of the trials or tragedies we face should truly surprise us, for Christ foretold all these things nearly two thousand years ago. What we must do is strengthen our faith—through prayer and total surrender to God—so that when the hour of great trial comes, He will find us prepared like good soldiers of Christ. Blind trust in God, daily intimacy with Him, a constant sacramental life, and the unyielding rule of love—these are what strengthen us and prepare our spiritual armor for the great battle of life, for the spiritual and even social struggles we must face. Christians are not called to be mere toy dolls—beautiful to look at yet lifeless within. We are called to be strong and proud warriors of faith, fighting peacefully but wholeheartedly for the Kingdom of Christ to be established in the world. Let us remember what St. Paul tells us: "What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? As it is written: 'For your sake we are being slain all the day; we are looked upon as sheep to be slaughtered.'" No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8: 35-39) God loves you with great tenderness. Happy Sunday!

Me sorprende mucho cuando muchos cristianos se sorprenden mucho sobre muchas cosas que pasan mucho. Lo sé... tengo que explicar lo que quiero decir. Muchos cristianos suelen decir: "Que cosas mas terribles están pasando en el mundo", "¿Por qué tanta injusticia contra la Iglesia Católica?", "¿Qué miedo, que miedo, ya viene el fin del mundo?", "¿Padre, explíquenlos porque pasan estas cosas, por favor?" etc... etc... etc... Y entonces yo me pregunté sorprendido: ¿Estas personas nunca han leído en sus vidas el evangelio de hoy...? El miedo es una de las principales herramientas que el demonio usa para hacernos desconfiar de Dios y sembrar en nosotros la ansiedad. Un buen católico debe saber que el dolor y la persecución forman parte de la vida y que todas las cosas terribles que nos pasen no deben ser nada nuevo para nosotros pues Cristo ya lo anunció hace dos mil años. Lo que debemos hacer es fortalecer nuestra fe a base de oración y de entrega total a Dios para que cuando nos llegue un momento fuerte de prueba Dios nos encuentre preparados como buenos soldados. La confianza ciega en Dios, la intimidad diaria con Él, la vida sacramental constante, y el regala del amor nos robustecen y preparan nuestro armamento espiritual para la batalla de la vida y para las guerras espirituales e incluso sociales que podamos enfrentar. Los cristianos no estamos llamados a ser muñequitas de juguetes, muy bonitas pero que no tienen vida. Los cristianos estamos llamados a ser guerreros fuertes y orgullosos que pelean pacíficamente pero con todo el corazón para el Reino de Cristo se establezca en el mundo. Nunca olvidemos lo que San Pablo nos dice: "¿Quién nos separará del amor de Cristo? ¿Tribulación, o angustia, o persecución, o hambre, o desnudez, o peligro, o espada? Como está escrito: 'Por causa de ti somos muertos todo el tiempo; Somos contados como ovejas de matadero.' Antes, en todas estas cosas somos más que vencedores por medio de aquel que nos amó. Por lo cual estoy seguro de que ni la muerte, ni la vida, ni ángeles, ni principados, ni potestades, ni lo presente, ni lo por venir, ni lo alto, ni lo profundo, ni ninguna otra cosa creada nos podrá separar del amor de Dios, que es en Cristo Jesús Señor nuestro" (Romanos 8, 35-39). Dios te ama con ternura infinita. ¡Feliz Domingo!

Our newly formed Fundraising Committee is beginning preparations for our upcoming Capital Campaign project in the next couple months. We are looking to add two more volunteers who are willing to share their time, talents and enthusiasm with our team.

If you're interested in learning more or would like to volunteer, please contact Katie in the Parish Office for additional information.

NOVEMBER 22 & 23, 2025

Next week, our brothers and sisters representing the Land of Peace mission- a nonprofit organization will be with us speaking about the Christian situation in the Holy Land and selling Crucifixes, religious art work, and rosaries- all made of olive wood which is native to Israel and Bethlehem. Since tourism has greatly depleted, Christian families in the holy land, who depend on tourists, have been greatly affected. The goal of this mission is to help the poor and needy families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Sale of these goods will help them very much and also give you the opportunity to have "something" authentic from the holy land.

Please browse and buy some articles. It is for a good cause and also a help to your personal devotion. See their website for more
