Catechetical Sunday

Prayer for Catechists

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists.
We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church.

Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word.
Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you.

Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning;
right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son.

We pray this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

SPIRITUAL DROP

XXV SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME –SEPTEMBER 20TH

One of the things that strikes me most when I hear confessions is that, often, they also become opportunities for psychological relief. Many people carry very heavy burdens, and some struggle with severe mental illnesses. For me, as a priest, it is a privilege to be able to offer at least a little comfort during confession. However, we must always ask ourselves why things happen the way they do. The United States is one of the countries with the highest rates of mental illness and suicide. This is striking because it is a developed country, where many people have more than they need to live; even many poor people in this country have more resources than the poor in other, less developed countries. Often, these statistics are linked to a lack of religious practice and, in many cases, to a life lived far from God. We Catholics are called by Christ to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. This is not easy, because it means we must be a light to illuminate others and always have the flavor of Christ, smell of Christ, and carry the fragrance of Christ to fill the world with God's presence. This is achieved only through a strong and solid relationship with Christ through disciplined prayer and the sacraments, and by knowing that, even if we have everything, none of it gives full meaning to our lives. Our life finds its ultimate meaning only in the One who created it and who, therefore, knows it far better than we do. In many cases, these inner wounds are the result of having placed our trust in material things or in other people. Let us remember what Jesus tells us: "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also" (Mt 6:21). Our trust must be anchored solely in God, who never disappoints. In this way, we will be prepared when life's great trials come, because we will know that we are not alone, that everything is fleeting, and that God alone is enough. God loves you with infinite tenderness. Happy Sunday!

Una de las cosas que más me llama la atención cuando escucho confesiones es que, muchas veces, estas se convierten también en espacios de desahogo psicológico. Muchas personas llevan cargas muy pesadas, y algunas luchan contra enfermedades mentales muy fuertes. Para mí, como sacerdote, es un privilegio poder ofrecer al menos un poco de consuelo durante la confesión. Sin embargo, siempre debemos preguntarnos por qué sucede lo que sucede. Estados Unidos es uno de los países con estadísticas más altas de enfermedades mentales y suicidios. Esto llama la atención porque es un país desarrollado, donde muchas personas tienen más de lo necesario para vivir; incluso mucha gente pobre en este país posee más recursos que los pobres de otros países menos desarrollados. Con frecuencia, estas estadísticas están relacionadas con la falta de práctica religiosa y, en muchos casos, con una vida vivida lejos de Dios. Nosotros, los católicos, estamos llamados por Cristo a ser sal de la tierra y luz del mundo. Esto no es fácil, porque significa que debemos ser luz para iluminar a los demás y tener siempre el sabor de Cristo, oler a Cristo, llevar la fragancia de Cristo para inundar el mundo con la presencia de Dios. Esto solo se logra mediante una relación fuerte y sólida con Cristo en la oración disciplinada y con los sacramentos, y sabiendo que, aunque tengamos todo, nada de eso da sentido pleno a nuestra vida. Nuestra vida encuentra su sentido último solamente en Aquel que la creó y que, por tanto, la conoce muchísimo mejor que nosotros. En muchos casos, estas heridas interiores son consecuencia de haber puesto la confianza en las cosas materiales o en personas humanas. Recordemos lo que nos dice Jesús: "Donde está tu tesoro esta también tu corazón" (Mt. 6, 21) Nuestra confianza debe estar anclada solamente en Dios, que nunca defrauda. De esta forma estaremos preparados cuando lleguen las grandes pruebas de la vida, porque sabremos que no estamos solos, que todo es pasajero y que solo Dios basta. Dios te ama con ternura infinita. ¡Feliz domingo!

United in Mission ANNUAL BISHOP'S APPEAL

SUPPORT OUR PARISH • STRENGTHEN OUR DIOCESE

The Annual Bishop's Appeal is a yearly fundraising campaign that helps meet the fiscal and spiritual needs of the Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend, funding roughly half the central diocesan operations budget. The diocesan-wide goal is divided among parishes, with each parish goal set from a formula considering the past year's offertory income and the past three years of appeal donations. All donations above a parish goal are returned to that parish.

MONTH 8

Spiritual Adoption Program

Developing Baby

"I like to listen to my Mommy's voice!"

Now your spiritually adopted baby is finished developing and is concentrating on gaining weight; she might be making her mother uncomfortable with her size. She will need a layer of fat to help her stay warm after she leaves the perfect temperature inside her mother's womb. For some weeks now she has recognized her mother's voice. In a short time, her baby will be born. Your baby's mother appreciated the prayers you have said for her and her baby throughout the pregnancy. It has not been easy, but your prayers have given her the grace she needed to bring her baby to term.

Thank you for praying!
