A SPIRITUAL DROP FROM OUR PASTOR XXII SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As summer draws to a close, I invite you to pause and give thanks for the many blessings this season—and this year—has brought. This is a wonderful opportunity to practice the virtue of gratitude and start preparing for Thanksgiving - even though it's still a couple of months away. I encourage you to be thankful not only for the joyful moments, but also for the challenges, as they help us grow in faith and offer us a chance to unite with Jesus's Passion. From now until Thanksgiving week, I invite you to write down one thing each day that you are grateful for and reflect on why. You may be pleasantly surprised at how abundantly God has blessed you. When Thanksgiving arrives, set aside some time to share what you have written with your family. What a beautiful way to celebrate the holiday—by recognizing together how truly blessed we are.

As summer comes to an end, I invite you to pause and give thanks for the many blessings that this season, and this year, have brought us. I encourage you to give thanks not only for the joyful moments, but also for the difficult moments we have faced, as they help us grow in faith and offer us the opportunity to be united to the Passion of Jesus. From now until Thanksgiving week, I invite you to write down one thing each day that you are grateful for and to reflect on why. You may be pleasantly surprised to discover how abundantly God has blessed you. When Thanksgiving rolls around, take some time to share what you've written with your family. What a beautiful way to celebrate this holiday season: by acknowledging together how truly fortunate we are.

God loves you with great tenderness.

What is the Annual Bishop's Appeal?

In the coming weeks, you will be invited to prayerfully consider a donation to this year's Annual Bishop's Appeal. This appeal is a yearly fundraising campaign that helps meet the physical and spiritual needs of the Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend, funding roughly half the central diocesan operation budget. The diocesan-wide goal is divided among parishes, with each parish goal set from an algorithm considering the past year's offertory income and the past three years of appeal donations. All donations above our parish goal are returned to our parish. To learn more or donate online, visit diocesefwsb.org/aba.

Dear Sisters and Brothers,
This is an urgent request from your Saint Vincent dePaul Society here at St Anthony's, St Paul's and Steuben County. We have seen a dramatic increase in local needs caring for Women, Men and Children in need of housing, food, clothing and utilities. While many of you have supported our work through giving to our Poor Boxes at each of the churches, and by mailing checks to our PO Box, listed in the Bulletin, as well as online giving, we are currently experiencing a significant shortfall in funds to meet these needs compared to prior months. Please prayerfully consider using the Poor Boxes today as you leave church or if you would like, send it today or tomorrow to our PO

Box and receive a tax statement at year end. This need is serious and we are deeply grateful to you for your support. May God bless you!

< You can set up reoccurring donations or give one time by scanning the QR code and setting up your payments online.

GOD'S HOUSE

Adhering to Christ's invitation, "Let the little children come to me," and recognizing the vital role families play in nurturing faith and ensuring its endurance through the generations, our St. Anthony community warmly welcomes families with young children to join us in worshipping Our Lord.

We also understand attending Mass with little ones can sometimes be challenging and in the words of St. Teresa of Calcutta, urge ..."Come anyway!"

To assist families, St. Anthony Parish is proud to announce the development of a program offering educational resources for parents and calming and learning activities for infants, toddlers and early elementary students which will cultivate a sense of belonging and reverence in their hearts.

If you are interested in helping develop this program please sign up in the gathering space, at the God's House table or contact Marilyn Karpinski, timitlady@aol.com, or Cathy Bryan at cathy@stanthonyangola.com

GIVE THE GIFT OF PRAYER

St. Anthony Church is in need Mass Intentions. Please call or stop by and see Katie in the Parish Office to schedule your gift of prayer up to 1 year in advance.
